About This Program

While every effort is made to ensure accuracy in this Commencement program, printing deadlines may result in the omission of some names and the inclusion of the names of persons not completing graduation requirements as intended. This printed program, therefore, should not be used to determine a student's final academic or degree status. Final degree status is reflected on a student's transcript, and part of their permanent record, once all degree requirements are completed. Students' academic records are maintained by the Registrar. Any errors or omissions may be reported to the Dean of Students Office via email to commencement@bhcc.edu and will be reflected in the online version of the program that will be included on the Ceremony Highlights page in June.

President's Distinguished Service Award

Presented by President Eddinger to Massachusetts Attorney General Andrea Joy Campbell.

The Bunker Hill Community College President's Distinguished Service Award is presented at Commencement to an individual who has rendered extraordinary service to our community and Bunker Hill Community College students. This year's award is presented to Massachusetts Attorney General Andrea Joy Campbell.

Attorney General Campbell is both a model and an inspiration to the BHCC community. From growing up in Boston to persevering over challenges and loss to her work as a city councilor and now as the 'people's lawyer,' and the first Black attorney general in state history, Attorney General Campbell's work lifts up our community and reminds us of the power of inclusive leadership.

Trustees' Distinguished Service Award

Presented by board of Trustees Chair William J. Walczak to the Department of Facilities Planning, Construction, and Energy Management, the Department of Facilities Management, and the Office of College Events and Cultural Planning.

Gary Bigelow, Executive Director, Facilities Planning, Construction and Energy Management

John Chirichello, Director, Facilities Management

Kevin E. Wery, Senior Director, Office of College Events and Cultural Planning

Gary, John, Kevin, and their respective teams are the recipients of this year's Bunker Hill Community College Board of Trustees Distinguished Service Award for their extraordinary commitment to our community through their care for our campus spaces and for the programming that brings those spaces to life.

Through their tireless efforts, the Department of Facilities Planning, Construction, and Energy Management, the Department of Facilities Management, and the Office of College Events and Cultural Planning have made our campuses safe, productive, and joyful places to work and learn, spaces that strive to fill the variety of uses and needs that befit our diverse community, and programs that bring a diversity of voices and perspectives for all to enjoy. They have made the life of our school richer, and our entire community is better for their efforts.

BHCC Student Regalia Designations

Stoles, cords, tassels, and medallions are worn by various groups of graduates to represent their achievement, honors and affiliations. These designations symbolize the hard work and serve as a reminder of the diversity and strength of our college community. Each group is led by a dedicated advisor who has supported and guided the students throughout their academic journey.

ACADEMIC HONOR DESIGNATIONS

Alpha Kappa Mu Graduates – Gold Stole with blue signature decal

Graduates who are members of the Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society can be identified by the gold Phi Theta Kappa stole worn over the regular academic gown, with a blue signature decal. Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society graduates are denoted by an “o” symbol in the program.

Commonwealth Honors Graduates – Gold Medallion

Graduates who have completed the Commonwealth Honors Program, which offers students from any academic discipline the opportunity to study and learn in an academically challenging and enriching learning environment.

Honors Graduates – Gold Tassels on Caps

Graduates receiving their degrees with honors are distinguished by gold tassels on their caps. These graduates have consistently demonstrated high academic achievement while attending the College. Honors graduates are denoted by a “*” symbol in the program. The cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA) used to identify Honors graduates was based on the GPA before the printing of the program and may not reflect the final GPA.

AFFINITY GROUP DESIGNATIONS

AANAPISI Proud Graduates – Double Cord of Red and Gold

Graduates of Asian American and Pacific Islander or AAPI descent are marching with a double cord of red and gold - a sign of honor in traditional graduation regalia. The cords they wear, which match the tassels on their caps, are red and gold, two colors that have deep meaning in many Asian cultures.

ACE Mentor Graduates – Red Cord

Graduates who served as ACE Mentors, integrated into Learning Community classrooms are recognized with a red cord. They served as resources to help new students adjust to the academic, social, and personal environment at BHCC.

HOPE Graduates – Black and Gold Kente Cloth Stole

HOPE (Halting Oppressive Pathways through Education) graduates wear the Kente Cloth stole as a symbol of achievement and overcoming hardship. It pays homage to the ancestors' sacrifices, reunites African Americans with Africa, and asserts their hope and confidence in the future. Historically, graduates wearing this stole are of African American, Black, and/or African descent.

LSSI Graduates – Red Sarape Stole

LSSI (Latinx Student Success Initiatives) graduates are wearing the Sarape Fabric as a symbolic stole that Hispanic and Latino/a/x graduates wear during graduation to share their “orgullo” (pride) in their accomplishments and culture. Historically, graduates who wear this stole are of Hispanic, Latina/Latino/Latinx descent.

TRIO Student Graduates – Red Stole

The Trio graduates are wearing a red stole. TRIO/Student Support Services is a federally funded program helping first-generation, income-eligible students or individuals with a documented disability.

Veteran Graduates – White Stole

Our Veteran graduates are wearing white stoles. They have made immense sacrifices for our country, and we want to take a moment to express our heartfelt gratitude for their service. We are honored to have you as members of our community, and we wish you continued success in your future endeavors.

Modern Scholars in Ancient Garb

The color and pageantry marking a college Commencement are rooted in long tradition. The caps and gowns worn by the faculty and the graduating class are also inherited from early medieval universities. Scholars of those days wore the gown and its attached hood for the dual purpose of keeping warm in the drafty, unheated buildings, and of identifying the particular clerical order to which they belonged.

THE GOWN

The style of the modern academic gown is based on an intercollegiate code established in 1895. The gown is commonly black, differing in type according to the level of the degree held. Gowns of some American and foreign institutions are often of red and other brilliant hues.

The doctor's gown is paneled in velvet, and has bell-shaped sleeves, each trimmed with three matching velvet bars. The velvet may be black or of the color representing the field of learning in which the degree was earned.

Master's, bachelor's and associate gowns have no velvet panels or trims. Sleeves of the master's are extra long, and are open either at the forearm or the wrist. Those of the bachelor's and associate gown are pointed and are normal sleeve length.

THE CAP

The mortarboard cap is proper for all American degrees, and is worn both indoors and out on all occasions when gowns are used. The tassel, worn over the left front quarter of the cap, may be black or may be in a color representing the degree.

THE HOOD

The hood is the most striking feature of the costume. Its shape, size and colors show both the degree of the wearer and the college which conferred it, so that anyone attending an academic function in America can distinguish holders of bachelor's, master's and doctor's degrees.

The shell or base of the hood is invariably black, but the lining is the color of the college or university granting the degree. As the faculty and platform party march down the aisle at Commencement, the audience will see the official colors of many colleges and universities represented in the hoods of the participants. Some of these are: Cornell University, carnelian with two white chevrons; Harvard University, crimson; Columbia University, light blue with white chevron; Tufts University, brown and blue.

College trustees or members of boards are permitted to wear a doctor's gown, but the hood they wear must designate only the degree they actually hold. The president of a college is entitled to wear a specially-designed costume. Trustees and other members of the official party, such as Marshals, may also wear specially-designed caps and gowns. At Bunker Hill Community College, the President, Trustees and Marshals appear in academic regalia which shows the colors of the College—red and white—and which designate, by the use of slight design differences, the office held.

Graduates of two-year colleges are awarded an associate in arts or associate in science degree or a certificate. Successful candidates for the associate degree and the certificate wear a bachelor's gown without a hood.

DIVISIONS OF THE PROCESSION

The academic procession at Commencement is made up of three divisions: The candidates for degrees and certificates; members of the faculty; and the President of the College, the Commencement speaker, the Trustees and other dignitaries or officers of the College.

The entire company is led by the Chief Marshal bearing a mace, originally a weapon of defense and a centuries-old symbol of academic authority.

A college or university Commencement symbolizes the induction of the graduates into the guild of scholars, whose tradition reaches back through centuries of western civilization to include all those who sought learning. Graduates can take pride in participating in such an ancient and honorable rite.
