Scope and Contents

The BHCC Faculty, Staff, Alumni, and Visitors Published Books record group houses the physical books in Bunker Hill Community College's archives, and these books range in date from 1962 to 2025. The first series contains books written by BHCC faculty/staff, including the Teaching for Our Times journal. Additionally, this series contains books written by alumni. The second series consists of books written by visitors to the college. The third series houses autographed books, both those by faculty/staff and alumni and those by visitors. The fourth series contain textbooks written by BHCC faculty/staff. All items in this record group are either monographs, journals, edited books, novels, or textbooks. Most of the books are academic, but there are other genres (such as politics, fiction, and memoirs), particularly in the books by visitors.

Arrangement

This collection is arranged into four series and five sub-series. Each series is organized chronologically, ascending in year first on the left side of the box and then the right.

Collection Inventory

Box 1

Series 1: Physical Books by Faculty/Staff (RG035.01)

The first series consists of books written by the faculty and staff of Bunker Hill Community College. These books date between 1962 and 2021, and they include textbooks, monographs, journals, and edited books. A majority of the books are scholarly works in subjects including history, literature, science, religion, and sociology. There is also one novel. Books are arranged chronologically.

Within this series are two sub-series: physical books by BHCC alumni and Teaching for Our Times. The first sub-series includes two books from 2015 and 2017 by alumni of the college. The second sub-series contains copies of Teaching for Our Times, a publication by BHCC faculty and staff that focuses on addressing issues in teaching practices and education. Both sub-series are arranged chronologically.

Series 3: Autographed Books (RG035.03)
The third series consists of autographed physical books from faculty and staff, visitors, and alumni. The series is divided into three sub-series, each housing the signed books of a different group. The first sub-series contains faculty and staff autographed books, ranging in date from 1984 to 2018. These books are largely academic monographs, but there are also three novels. Many faculty members have published more than once within this sub-series, including Luke Salisbury, Stephanie Schorow, Elena Neva, Sondlo L. Mhlaba, and Jean D. Joachim.

The second sub-series includes books autographed by visitors to the college, often for speaker events. These visitors included scholars, celebrities, activists, and other prominent figures. Some visitors were Angela Davis, Lois Lowry, Roxane Gay, Larry Spotted Crow Mann, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Bonnie Garmus, Jaleel White, and Bill Cummings. The contents of this sub-series date between 1983 and 2025.

The third sub-series contains the books autographed by BHCC alumni, and there is currently one title here by Dawn Reno Langley from 2017.

All three series are arranged chronologically.
