

Turn Workforce Skills into College Credit

Students who complete eligible Workforce Skills Courses (noncredit) within the past year may be able to earn college credit through Credit for Prior Learning (CPL). These credits can count toward select BHCC certificate and associate degree programs, helping you advance your education and career.

STEM Pathway

Workforce Skills Course	College Credit Awarded	BHCC Academic Programs
COMPTIA A++	CIT 182 PC Hardware & Software (3 credits)	- IT Networking & Security Certificate - IT Support Specialist Certificate - Excel Applications Support Specialist Certificate - Cybersecurity Associate of Science Degree
Marine Technician	SCI 299 Science Internship (3 credits)	Environmental Science Associate of Science Degree

Health Pathway

Workforce Skills Course	College Credit Awarded	BHCC Academic Program
CNA Preparation Course	AHE 120 CNA Home Health Aide Principles and Skills (6 credits)	Patient Care Technician Certificate
EKG and Phlebotomy	AHE 201 Advanced Medical Skills	Medical Assistant Certificate